HYMN 187 – How oft, O Lord, thy face hath shone

- 1 How oft, O Lord, thy face hath shone
On doubting souls, whose wills were true!
Thou Christ of Cephas and of John,
Thou art the Christ of Thomas too.
- 2 He loved thee well, and calmly said,
'Come, let us go, and die with him' :
Yet, when thine Easter-news was spread,
'Mid all its light his eyes were dim.
- 3 His brethren's word he would not take,
But craved to touch those hands of thine:
The bruised reed thou didst not break;
He saw, and hailed his Lord Divine.
- 4 He saw thee risen: at once he rose
To full belief's unclouded height :
And still through his confession flows
To Christian souls thy life and light.
- 5 O Saviour, make thy presence known
To all who doubt thy Word and thee;
And teach them in that Word alone
To find the truth that sets them free.
- 6 And we who know how true thou art,
And thee as God and Lord adore,
Give us, we pray, a loyal heart,
To trust and love thee more and more.

O Lord, open thou our lips;
And our mouth shall show forth thy praise.

O God, make speed to save us;
O Lord, make haste to help us.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now,
and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Praise ye the Lord;
The Lord's Name be praised.

PSALM: 111; Tone VIII,2

- 1 I will give thanks unto the Lord with my whole heart, / in the council of the faithful and in the congregation.
- 2 The works of the Lord are great, / sought out of all them that have pleasure therein.
- 3 His work is worthy to be praised and had in honour; /
and his righteousness endureth for ever.
- 4 The merciful and gracious Lord hath so done his marvellous works, / that they ought to be had in remembrance.
- 5 He hath given meat unto them that fear him; /
he shall ever be mindful of his covenant.
- 6 He hath showed his people the power of his works, /
in giving them the heritage of the nations.
- 7 The works of his hands are verity and judgement; / all his precepts are sure;
- 8 They stand fast for ever and ever, / and are done in truth and equity.
- 9 He sent redemption unto his people; /
he hath commanded his covenant for ever; holy and reverend is his Name.
- 10 The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom; /
a good understanding have all they that do thereafter;
his praise endureth for ever.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, / and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, /
world without end. Amen.

PSALM: 112; VII,5

- 1 Blessed is the man that feareth the Lord, /
that hath great delight in his commandments.
- 2 His seed shall be mighty upon earth; /
the generation of the faithful shall be blessed.
- 3 Riches and plenteousness shall be in his house; /
and his righteousness endureth for ever.
- 4 Unto the upright there ariseth up light in the darkness; /
he is merciful, loving, and righteous.
- 5 It is well with the man that is merciful and lendeth, /
and ordereth his affairs with justice.
- 6 For he shall never be moved: /
and the righteous shall be had in everlasting remembrance.
- 7 He will not be afraid of any evil tidings; /
for his heart standeth fast and believeth in the Lord.
- 8 His heart is established and will not shrink, /
until he see his desire upon his enemies.
- 9 He hath dispersed abroad and given to the poor, /
and his righteousness remaineth for ever; his horn shall be exalted with honour.
- 10 The ungodly shall see it, and it shall grieve him: /
he shall gnash with his teeth and consume away;
the desire of the ungodly shall perish.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, / and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, /
world without end. Amen.

FIRST LESSON – Exodus 15.1-18

The First Lesson is written the book of Exodus, in the fifteenth chapter, beginning at the first verse.

Then Moses and the people of Israel sang this song to the LORD, saying, “I will sing to the LORD, for he has triumphed gloriously; the horse and his rider he has thrown into the sea. The LORD is my strength and my song, and he has become my salvation; this is my God, and I will praise him, my father’s God, and I will exalt him. The LORD is a man of war; the LORD is his name. “Pharaoh’s chariots and his host he cast into the sea; and his picked officers are sunk in the Red Sea. The floods cover them; they went down into the depths like a stone. Thy right hand, O LORD, glorious in power, thy right hand, O LORD, shatters the enemy. In the greatness of thy majesty thou overthrowest thy adversaries; thou sendest forth thy fury, it consumes them like stubble. At the blast of thy nostrils the waters piled up, the floods stood up in a heap; the deeps congealed in the heart of the sea.

The enemy said, 'I will pursue, I will overtake, I will divide the spoil, my desire shall have its fill of them. I will draw my sword, my hand shall destroy them.' Thou didst blow with thy wind, the sea covered them; they sank as lead in the mighty waters. "Who is like thee, O LORD, among the gods? Who is like thee, majestic in holiness, terrible in glorious deeds, doing wonders? Thou didst stretch out thy right hand, the earth swallowed them. "Thou hast led in thy steadfast love the people whom thou hast redeemed, thou hast guided them by thy strength to thy holy abode. The peoples have heard, they tremble; pangs have seized on the inhabitants of Philistia. Now are the chiefs of Edom dismayed; the leaders of Moab, trembling seizes them; all the inhabitants of Canaan have melted away. Terror and dread fall upon them; because of the greatness of thy arm, they are as still as a stone, till thy people, O LORD, pass by, till the people pass by whom thou hast purchased. Thou wilt bring them in, and plant them on thy own mountain, the place, O LORD, which thou hast made for thy abode, the sanctuary, O LORD, which thy hands have established. The LORD will reign for ever and ever."

Here endeth the First Lesson.

THE MAGNIFICAT

Canticles: Tone VI

MY soul doth magnify the Lord, / and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour.
For he hath regarded / the lowliness of his handmaiden.
For behold, from henceforth / all generations shall call me blessed.
For he that is mighty hath magnified me; / and holy is his Name.
And his mercy is on them that fear him / throughout all generations.
He hath showed strength with his arm; /
he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.
He hath put down the mighty from their seat, /
and hath exalted the humble and meek.
He hath filled the hungry with good things; /
and the rich he hath sent empty away.
He remembering his mercy / hath holpen his servant Israel;
As he promised to our forefathers, / Abraham and his seed for ever.
GLORY be to the Father, and to the Son, / and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, / world without end. Amen.

SECOND LESSON – Luke 24.1-12

The Second Lesson is written in the Gospel according to Saint Luke, in the twenty-fourth chapter, beginning at the first verse.

But on the first day of the week, at early dawn, they went to the tomb, taking the spices which they had prepared. And they found the stone rolled away from the tomb, but when they went in they did not find the body. While they were perplexed about this, behold, two men stood by them in dazzling apparel; and as they were frightened and bowed their faces to the ground, the men said to them, “Why do you seek the living among the dead? Remember how he told you, while he was still in Galilee, that the Son of man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and on the third day rise.” And they remembered his words, and returning from the tomb they told all this to the eleven and to all the rest. Now it was Mary Magdalene and Jo-anna and Mary the mother of James and the other women with them who told this to the apostles; but these words seemed to them an idle tale, and they did not believe them.

Here endeth the Second Lesson.

NUNC DIMITTIS

Canticles: Tone VI

Lord, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace, / according to thy word.
For mine eyes have seen thy salvation, /
which thou hast prepared before the face of all people;
To be a light to lighten the Gentiles, / and to be the glory of thy people Israel.
GLORY be to the Father, and to the Son, / and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, /
world without end. Amen.
